Madrid, Jan. 18. N. S. The Duke of Anjou has lately preferred to the Regency of Navarre Don Juan de Rimol y Zuiroga, and has made Don Juan Iñidro de Padilla Governor of Orihuela, and Don Juan de Valcarcel-Dato Corregidor of Biscay. He has also made a Promotion in the Army, having advanced to the Command of Brigadier Generals the Marquisses de Pocoblanco, Paterna, Santelmo and Palavicino, Don Fabricio Ruffo, Brother to the Cardinal of that Name, Don Luis de Cordoua, and 12

other Colonels. The Duke of Berwick is shortly to go from hence to view the Fortifications of our Frontier Towns, and to review the Forces in their several Garisons. They write from the Frontiers of Portugal, That the Portuguese, upon Intelligence that our Troops on that side had a Design upon Ciudad-Rodrigo, had prevented them, by reinforcing that Garison with 900 Foot and 300 Horse, and had sent out several disaffected Persons, and put the Place into a very good Posture of Defence. We hear from the Frontiers of Catalonia, That the Confederates had lately sent a considerable Reinforcement to their Troops in that Province.

Brescia, Jan. 26. Count Schlick and Count Thaur passed lately by this Place in their Return from Vienna to Milan. Divers German Officers are come hither from the Cremonese, to buy Provisions and other Necessaries for the use of their Troops which are posted about Cremona, and keep that Place so closely blocked up, that Provisions begin to grow scarce there; as they do likewise at Mantua, the Imperialists having lately posted some Troops near that Town, which do in a great measure hinder the sending of Provisions into it. The French and Spanish Troops under General Medavi continue in the same Posts. The Duke of Mantua is retired from thence, and came the 21st Instant to Verona: He intends shortly to go to Padua, and to reside there some time.

Vienna, Jan. 29. The Emperor's Ministers have lately had several Conferences with the Sieurs Figner, Moor, and some other Persons, that propose to undertake the furnishing of Provisions for the Imperial Forces during the next Campaign. The new Levies for recruiting and augmenting our Troops are successfully carried on, and a great Number of Recruits have already been sent away towards Italy. Orders are also given for sending Horses thither to remount the Imperial Cavalry. Baron Bartholdi, the King of Prussia's Envoy here, being recalled from that Employment, is upon his Departure home: His Brother is to remain here in the Quality of Resident. The Count de Lagnaski arrived here this Week from Rome, where he has resided several Years as Envoy from Poland. They write from Hungary, That the Fortifications of Zolnock had been demolished by General Staremberg's Order; and that they have great Hopes that the Junction of the Imperial Forces under that General, with those commanded by General Rabutin, will enable them to oblige the Malecontents to retire from the Frontiers of Stiria, where they commit great Disorders. In the mean time Prince Ragotzi is also assembling all the Forces he is able to oppose the Imperial Army. Commissioners are sent to Stiria and Bohemia to view the several Towns and Fortresses in those Parts, particularly those which lie most exposed to the Excursions of the Malecontents, and to give Directions about the repairing of their Fortifications; and doing what else is necessary to put them into a good Posture of Defence.

Falmouth, Febr. 6. On the 4th Instant sailed hence the Lucy Galley, William Baker Commander, and the Robert of Dublin, Henry Underwood Master, both bound for Lisbon; and the Swallow Galley, John Werry Commander, for Leghorne, being laden with Fish. Yesterday arrived here the Queen Packet-Boat, John Culverden Commander, from Lisbon, having been 6 Days in her Passage.

Plymouth, Febr. 7. On the 5th put in here by contrary Winds the Success, as did also yesterday the
